

Lucevista Villa

On the hillside at Fanari, Lucevista takes its name from the Italian for light and view, and both are everywhere you look. Three stone-built villas, Alba, Aura and Sera, blend quietly into the landscape, each with two bedrooms, a private pool, a terrace and a balcony. Take one villa for a quiet escape, or the whole estate for up to eighteen.

Days here give you both sides of Mykonos. Swim in your own private pool, spend the afternoon on the terrace with the light and the view, then head into town when the island calls. At the end of it all, you return to a calm, secluded retreat, well away from the crowds, that is yours and yours alone.

Lighthouse Villa By RESTONI

Live like a Greek rest like a god

Built from natural stone that settles softly into the hillside, each Lucevista villa is calm, comfortable and quietly refined. A 75 square metre living space and fully equipped kitchen make every villa easy to call home, while terraces and balconies open each one out towards the sea, the landscape and the changing island light.

Lucevista is made for relaxed, private living: mornings by your own pool, long afternoons on the terrace with the view, and evenings that glow as the blue hour settles over Fanari.

Everything here is built around space and flexibility. Three stone villas, six bedrooms and three private pools, sleeping up to eighteen across the estate, or just six in a villa of your own. Each home comes fully equipped, with its own kitchen, washing machine, terrace and balcony. With free WiFi, air conditioning, private parking and pets welcome too, Lucevista suits families, groups of friends and private celebrations alike.

You are asked only to settle in, and stay.
